TRF Welcomes New Board Member

Gregory Hahn appointed as newest trustee

INDIANAPOLIS (July 30, 2008) – The Indiana State Teachers' Retirement Fund (TRF) recently announced the appointment of Gregory Hahn to TRF's Board of Trustees. Governor Mitch Daniels made the appointment official on July 25, 2008. Hahn's term expires August 1, 2011.

Hahn comes to TRF with extensive experience in the investment management industry. He worked previously as part of the executive staff at Consecro, Inc., and is currently the president and CIO of Winthrop Capital Management.

"We're all very excited to have Greg on board," said TRF Executive Director Steve Russo. "He has such a solid background and understanding of investments and I am confident that TRF will benefit from his expertise."

The Indiana State Teachers' Retirement Fund (TRF) administers the pensions and manages the investments for over 160,000 members.
